The Yates County Sheriff's Annual K-9 Seminar to be held
Sunday, October 16th and Conclude Thursday, October 20th , 2022

The Yates County Sheriff's Office K-9 Unit is pleased to announce our annual training seminar. We have put together a staff of highly qualified and dedicated instructors. Both NAPWDA and New York State certifications will be offered. Certifications will be held Monday and Tuesday, with the rest of the week available for training...tactical, scenario based, problem solving. A public demonstration will also be held, we ask each attendee to bring a uniform with them and participate in the demo.

This year's seminar will again be held at the Showboat Motel, 3434 Plum Point Road Himrod, N.Y. Breakfast and Dinner will be provided at the motel.
All Dogs must be crated if they are going to be in the rooms.

This year's seminar is $625.00 per team. This includes all instruction material, lodging, breakfast and dinner (meals begin with breakfast on Monday October 17th). Participants are on their own for lunch. If your department has "Air soft" or simunition weapons, feel free to bring them for the tactical and reality based training scenarios.

Please bring narcotic training aids.

We take care of all reservations; please do not contact the motel.
Attendees will be doubled up (tripled in some cases), if you have a preference on whom you room with, let us know. If you wish a single room we can arrange a limited amount for an additional fee.

Please make all checks payable to: Yates County COPS K9
